The graph shows the limit $|h_3^-|$ as a function of the arc length parameter. The graph is a smooth curve that reaches its minimum at the arc length parameter of approximately 0. The curve is symmetric around the origin and extends in both positive and negative directions of the arc length parameter.